

The Seam Flanger

The Seam Flanger from Norlok is a low cost, efficient solution for edge clinching, standing seams and other close access applications. The machine uses standard shop air only, with no hydraulic booster unit required. It includes a 360° rotating hanging bracket and all the tooling you need to fasten up to 16g mild steel.

